

Ezekiel Cullen Home

San Augustine, Texas

Built in 1839 by Augustus Phelps, the Ezekiel Cullen Home is the headquarters for the Ezekiel Cullen Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas. Used as a historical events center and museum in the community, it can be rented for social occasions. Tours are by appointment only. To learn more about this historic home contact the San Augustine Chamber of Commerce at 936.275.3610.

205 South Congress
San Augustine, Texas

Your Texas Heritage

Who are your ancestors?

When did they come to Texas?

How do you find the answers?

What can you do to help preserve your Texas heritage?

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas (DRT) can help!

Become a member of the DRT. DRT offers a variety of ways to participate in keeping Texas history and heritage alive for present and future generations.

Portrait of Ezekiel Cullen who was an early legislator, jurist, and lawyer who moved to San Augustine to establish a law practice.

Portraits of Alexander Horton and his wife, Elizabeth, who lived in San Augustine. Horton was a pioneer, soldier, civic leader, and state legislator. He served as an aide-de-camp to General Sam Houston at the battle of San Jacinto.

For more information:

Email: ezekielcullenchapter@gmail.com

U.S. Mail: P.O. Box 402, San Augustine, Texas 75972

or

www.drinfo.org