In order to promote Texas Heritage and history, the Republic of Texas Museum sponsors an Annual Art Contest for school age students across Texas.

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas (DRT) have divided Texas into ten Districts*. Student's research will reveal the diverse culture and heritage of Texans living in their home district prior to 1850 and their contributions to this great state.

Purpose:

To document Texas historical sites, events, activities and individual(s) in the various districts in Texas prior to 1850.

Topics are limited to:

Historical site, event, activity, or individual(s) in the student's home district that helped the settling of Texas prior to 1850.

Criteria:

- Accuracy, Neatness and Clarity
- Relevancy to topic in home district
- Size Requirement

Art Contest entries are judged by Republic of Texas Museum Committee Members.
